Activities to raise funds for KECC agencies

By Anya Armes Weber, CFC Office of Communications

The Kentucky Employees Charitable Campaign is going strong statewide, and CFC employees can contribute in several ways.

Make a pledge

There's still time to turn in your KECC pledge sheet. Participating charities include the WHAS Crusade for Children, Christian Appalachian Project, Prevent Child Abuse Kentucky, Easter Seals Kentucky and the United Way and all its agencies. You can also designate money for the United Way's September 11th Fund for disaster relief. You can choose to give all next year, through payroll deduction, or to give a one-time donation. Give your completed pledge sheet to your office's KECC representative or send it to Bonnie Cox in the First City Complex by Oct. 31.

Shop at the yard sale

On Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 15 and 16, the Ombudsman's Office will have a yard sale in the CHR lobby. Hours are 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

If you'd like to donate any items to the sale, except clothes, contact Michele Harrod or Rodney Moore at 564-5497.

Join pumpkin mania

Get your office's creativity flowing for the pumpkin-decorating contest. During Halloween week, staff will be able to vote -- with coins or any amount of money -- for the best-looking pumpkin. You can vote in the cafeteria during lunch hours. The winning office gets a pizza party.

Enjoy the Halloween bash

The KECC Halloween Bash will be on Wednesday, Oct. 31. The cafeteria will be serving a special lunch of carnival food like corn dogs, hot dogs, caramel apples, popcorn and cotton candy. There will be games including a pie toss, cake walk, bowling, piñata thumping, dart throwing and a ring toss.

The Franklin County Humane Society will visit with a few animals awaiting adoption.

Prizes will be given to the people with the best Halloween costumes. The funniest, scariest and most original outfits will earn $25 each.

Other activities

KECC will sponsor a silent auction during Halloween week and a book sale later this year. Keep reading the Pipeline for details.
